1. On 23 January 1953 a four-man Iranian trade delegation arrived in East Berlin. The delegation will be in East Berlin until February 1953. It is to conclude trade agreements with East Germany.
2. The delegation was dispatched on the initiative of Senator Dr. A. Matine-Daftari, who was at the Moscow Economic Conference and is director of the Iran Committee for the Promotion of World Trade. The East German Chamber for Foreign Trade was also instrumental in arranging to have the delegation visit East Germany.
3. Several members of the delegation speak Russian. They spent some time in Budapest prior to their arrival in East Berlin.
